Thank You-Everyone!

Another Summer Festival is under our belt! We had good weather after all, the church grounds were full of the smell of good food and the sounds of people having fun all weekend long.

A huge thank you to Valerie Lanfair and her group of volunteers that worked non-stop and tirelessly organizing this event and making sure all the T's were crossed and I's were dotted. And for organizing our two evening events! Joe Healy worked for days preparing the beverages for our whole festival. We thank him profusely for that and the rest of the work he did quietly and efficiently! And our sincere thank you to Bob Romeo for putting together another great auction. Thank you to Theresa Noyes and her Tag Sale team and Carol Kirby and her bake sale team. The gift baskets were beautiful and the baked goods irresistible. We appreciate all the donations to both events.

Congratulations to all of our raffle and basket winners and to those who participated in the auction. We hope everyone was able to win something they really wanted! Sincere thanks to our New Genesis group who hosted our kids games this year!

We must thank the Knights of Columbus and UNICO for the hamburgers, hot dogs and other food they cooked up and served all day Saturday, and the wonderful pancake breakfast under the tent on Sunday. You are both here for us each year and we are so grateful.

A special thank you to all of you who donated, contributed and helped in any way. None of this would be possible without your continued support.

Even if you weren't mentioned by name in this heart-felt thank you, we saw the work you did and the hours you put in to make this festival happen. Please know that we appreciate all you did.

And finally, thank you to all of our underwriters and businesses who kindly donated to our festival and auction. The support of our extended community means the world to us and we appreciate you.

Short Excerpts

Taken from Pope Francis' Addresses And Homilies

"The Sin of Indifference"

Today no one in our world feels responsible; we have lost a sense of responsibility for our brothers and sisters. We have fallen into the hypocrisy of the priest and the Levite who Jesus described in the parable of the Good Samaritan: we see our brother half-dead on the side of the road, and perhaps we say to ourselves, "Poor soul. . . !" and then go on our way. It's not our responsibility, and with that we feel reassured, assuaged. The culture of comfort, which makes us think only of ourselves, makes us insensitive to the cries of other people, makes us live in soap bubbles which, however lovely, are insubstantial; they offer a fleeting and empty illusion which results in indifference to others; indeed, it even leads to the globalization of indifference. In this globalized world, we have fallen into globalized indifference. We have become used to the suffering of others: it doesn't affect me; it doesn't concern me; it's none of my business!

This excerpt was taken from the book, "Pope Francis Speaks to Our Hearts, Words of Challenge and Hope" by the Word Among Us.

Gluten Free hosts are available to those who cannot receive hosts with gluten. Please take communion in the line with Msgr. John and tell him you need the gluten-free host as you approach him for communion.

If you are going into the hospital for surgery or other serious procedure, and wish to be anointed before hand, please speak to the priest after Mass the weekend before.
