Film Screening and Candle Lighting Yom HaShoah—Holocaust Remembrance Day

At 2 p.m. today, Apr. 8th, at the Berkshire Museum, 39 South St., Pittsfield, all are invited to watch the film screening of, My Italian Secret: The Forgotten Heroes, narrated by Isabella Rossellini. This film reveals the clandestine Italian resistance movement that helped save thousands of Jews during the Holocaust. It is the story of ordinary and prominent Italians, including Tour-de France champion cyclist Gino Barali and high ranking officials of the Catholic Church, who carried out ingenious schemes to rescue Jews, partisans and refugees from Nazi-occupied Italy.

These inspiring acts are recounted by descendants of rescuers and survivors, as well as those who escaped the concentration camps as children.

Join us for a candle lighting and prayers in memory of those murdered in the Holocaust after the film.

Following the film, La Rabinessa Liora Kelman of Congregation Beth Israel in Schenectady will share her family history of survival. The Saranos of Milan where saved in the small Italian village of Mobaroccio during the Holocaust.

This even is free and open to the public and co-sponsored by the Jewish Federation, The Dioceses of Springfield, and the Italian American Club of Pittsfield.
