ST ANN SUMMER FESTIVAL

We had a beautiful weekend to celebrate our parish community, friends, and visitors. Thank you to everyone for coming out to support our festival and making it a success!

It's no surprise that the bake sale "Sold Out" of product with all the beautiful works of art created by our volunteer bakers. Carol Kirby and her team always construct such an inviting display of goods that are simply irresistible. It was also great to see trunks loaded with fabulous deals from the tag sale. Theresa Noyes and her dedicated group of volunteers were there to assist with finding just what you were looking for. Our tag sale crew spent countless hours organizing and pricing merchandise, hauling items under the big tent, and designing an organized storefront. The Knights of Columbus were ready to fill our hungry bellies with their fabulous lunch spread. The live auction had some outstanding items presented by Bob Romeo and his team. It is exciting to see who will come in with the highest bids. The kids carnival is always a big hit! Sandy Morley, Delores Rocha, Marin Jacobs, and our friends from New Genesis had some great games and prizes for all who participated. With this great collaboration with our community partners, the Catholic Mirror wanted to see us in action and interview our team for an upcoming article. Keep a look out for the upcoming issue featuring our wonderful partnership with New Genesis.

We had a nice turn out for the 5k family fun run. Dennis "Lightening" Love remains undefeated with a record time of 19:47 but he best stay on his game with Jaydee Reber coming up on his heels finishing at 23:56. New to the race this year is our third play finisher, Brayden Rocha, coming in at 29:48. Thank you to all our runners for coming out in the hot summer sun to participate in our family friendly fun run. Runner are listed in order of finish:

1) Dennis Love            2) Jaydee Reber            3) Brayden Rocha            4) Dawson Reber            5) Seamus Cooney
6) Andrew Holt            7) Kim Blair            8) Joan & Philip Hymanson            9) Lynne Cota

New to the summer festival, we had a Junior Choppers competition coordinated by the most amazing Christa Ames. She organized a wonderful panel of expert judges along with 10 teams of future chefs and a wide array of pantry items used to concoct some creative dishes. Each team crafted their own unique masterpieces to present to the judges. It was such a treat to have our youth involved in this great event. Each team had the opportunity to develop skills in teamwork, leadership, creativity, and organization. The judges certainly had a difficult decision to make in presenting the winners of the competition. The first place price of $75 was awarded to Team Looney – Jack, Seamus, Grace, and Annie. The second place price of $25 was awarded to The Cooking Queens – Charlie, Claire, Emma, and Kylie. All teams were provided with a chance to enter the basket raffle. Everyone had such a great time and they are looking forward for the next Junior Choppers Competition. Great idea Christa!

I scream, you scream, we all scream Pizza Party! Our Saturday evening dinner feast was orchestrated by Jason Dragonetti with his kitchen expertise. He worked with our volunteers to assemble a variety of delicious take n' bake pizzas as well as hot pizzas. Our dinner guests were able to enjoy their pizzas under the tent with their favorite choice of beverage thanks to our dedicated bar tenders Mike Cooney and Pete Love. Thank you to everyone who came out to enjoy a hot slice and take home a pizza or two.

The delightful eats continued into Sunday morning with the pancake breakfast sponsored by UNICO. Tables were decorated with lovely arrangements prepared by Jen Jaehnig and our wait staff featured members of the Ames, Cooney, Jaehnig, Lanfair, Love, McCormack, and Schnackenberg families. The Sorrentino family makes the best pancakes in the county along with some fresh fruit and a cup of Joe all for $6; no one was leaving hungry!

We wrapped up our weekend with a wonderful Mass under the big tent. Sandy Morley and members of the St. Ann youth choir bring tears of joy and gratitude to my eyes each year. Msgr. Bonzagni leaves us with pondering thoughts on humanity and our connections to the earth as well as to one another. With the summer breeze and sounds of nature surrounding, there is an overwhelming sense of peace and community support to carry you through the start of a new week. Thank you to Lorry, Clyde and Barbara, our behind the scenes counting team, who kept track of the financial portion of our summer festival, before, during and after. And we especially thank all of our generous underwriters who selflessly donated to this annual fundraiser.

A special thank you goes out to all who provided the generous basket donations. We had many happy winners excited to claim their prizes. And everyone enjoyed their ice cream, compliments of The Scoop, as the raffle winners were announced.
